People sound poll bugle for me: PM

DHEERAJ MISHRA Bulandshahr, January 25

LAUNCHING A SLEW of development projects in western Uttar Pradesh in the countdown to the Lok Sabha polls, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Thursday that he only sounds the "bugle of vikas" (development) and it is the "janata janardan" (the people) who sound the election bugle for him.

Addressing a gathering in Bulandshahr after inaugurating and laving the foundation stone of development projects worth more than ₹19,100 crore, Modi said, "Today we are making every effort to ensure that benefits of government schemes reach every beneficiary. That's why Modi is guaranteeing saturation, guaranteeing 100%. This removes any possibility of discrimination or corruption. This is true secularism, true social justice." The dreams of the poor, women and youth, he said, are the same in every society. Due to the efforts of the government, 25 crore people, he said, were brought out of poverty in the last 10 years.

farmers,

"I saw some media reports saying that Modi will sound the election bugle today. Modi only sounds the bugle of vikas (development), Modi sounds the bugle for the welfare of the last person in the line," he said.

ADDRESS TO NATION ON EVE OF R-DAY

Ram temple landmark in India's history: President

DIVYAA New Delhi, January 25

CALLING THE CONSECRATION ceremony at the new Ram temple in Ayodhya a "landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage", President Droupadi Murmu on Thursday said the temple was an expression of people's faith, and a testament to their trust in the judicial process.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the 75th Republic Day, Murmu said: "Earlier this week, we witnessed the historic consecration ceremony of the idol of Prabhu Shri Ram in the glorious new temple constructed at his birthplace in Ayodhya...When this event will be seen in the wider perspective, the future historians will consider it a landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage."

"The construction of the temple commenced after the due judicial process and the decision of the highest court of the land... Now it stands as a grand edifice, giving a befitting expression not only of people's faith but also as a testament to people's enormous trust in the judicial process," she said. On Wednesday, the Union cabinet had adopted a resolution congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the consecration ceremony, stating that while "the body of the country attained independence in 1947, the Pran Pratishtha of its soul was done on January 22, 2024," and "everyone experienced spiritual bliss". The resolution said Modi had fulfilled a dream that the "Indian civilisation had dreamt for five centuries".

On the eve of the consecration ceremony, the President had also penned a note to the Prime Minister, calling the event an uninhibited expression of the eternal soul of India. "We are fortunate to witness the commencement of a new cycle in the resurgence of our nation," she had

In her televised address on Thursday evening, Murmu said her heart was filled with pride at seeing "how far we have travelled despite adversities". "The 75th year of the Republic is truly a historic milestone in the journey of the nation in many ways. This is an especially festive occasion, just as we celebrated the unique greatness and diverse culture of our nation during the Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, when we completed 75 years of Independence," she said.

"Tomorrow is the day when we celebrate the commencement of the Constitution. Its Preamble begins with the words 'We, the People of Indi', highlighting the theme of the document, namely, democracy. In India, democratic system is much older than the concept of western democracy. That is the reason why India is called the 'mother of democracy," she said.

Murmu said the country is in "the early years of Amrit Kaal, the period leading to the centenary of Independence", the time of "an epochal transformation". Reminding the citizens of their fundamental duties, she said: "These duties are essential obligations of every citizen towards making Bharat a developed nation when it completes 100 years of independence. Here, I think of Mahatma Gandhi who had rightly said, 'No people have risen who thought only of rights. Only those did so who thought of duties."

The President also made a special mention of the birth anniversary of former Bihar chief minister Karpoori Thakur, who has been awarded the Bharat Ratna posthumously, calling him the "tireless champion of social justice". "Karpoori ji was one of the greatest advocates of backward classes who dedicated his life for their welfare. His life was a message. I pay my tribute to Karpoori ji for enrich ing public life through his contributions," she said.

The President also made a mention of several landmark events over the last one year, including the G-20 Summit, Chandrayaan landing on the Moon and passage of the women's Bill."The G20 Summit also boosted India's emergence as the voice of the Global South, adding a necessary element to the international discourse," she said. On the women's reservation Bill, she said: "When more women will be involved in matters of collective importance, our administrative priorities will be more in tune with the

And on India's space achievements, she mentioned the proposed Gaganyaan mission, the country's first manned space flight. "We have always been proud of our scientists and technology experts, but now they are aiming far higher than before and delivering too," she said.
