BJP INVOKES CANDIDATE'S TIES IN INDORE, CONG FOCUSES ON LOCAL ISSUES

BJP will count on general secy's help Malwa Nimar

ANAND MOHAN J Indore, OCTOBER 27

BJP NATIONAL GENERAL SECRETARY Kailash Vijayvargiya is preparing for the unexpected Assembly election he finds himself in, armed with fistfuls of mithai. Party workers gathered at a Dussehra Milan event in Indore's Mahavir Bagh Wednesday are greeted personally by the 67-year-old with a sweet placed in their mouths.

The six-time MLA knows the virtue of patience, as he feeds the sea of workers, listens to their grievances, even cracks a joke.

Now, he needs this forbearance more than ever.

After the BJP named Vijayvargiya along with three Union ministers and four MPs for the Madhya Pradesh Assembly elections, the 67year-old admitted he was "shocked". Some of it presumably linked to the fact that the ticket to him closed the door on his son, Akash, the sitting MLA from Indore-3.

Vijayvargiya seems to have reconciled since. The leader, credited with playing a crucial role in BIP win in several states is now plotting his own and, via that, reclaiming the Malwa Nimar region for the Whoever holds sway in the region's 66 seats generally goes on to form the government. In 2013, the BJP had won 57 seats in the region. But in 2018, when the Congress won with a thin majority, 36 of the 66 seats went to the party. The BJP won 28.

While Vijayvargiya clearly

Vijayvargiya hints his political ambitions remain. 'Party wil give other responsibilities.'

hopes his feats will carry him through, sitting Indore-1 MLA Sanjay Shukla of the Congress is telling voters that the BJP leader is a guest and positioning himself as the son of Indore.

Scoffing at this, Vijayvargiya says to The Indian Express: "I have been the mayor of Indore, a six-time MLA. If he (Shukla) doesn't know that I am from Indore, there can't be bigger ignorance."

He has indicated that his larger political ambitions remain intact."I will get other important responsibilities from the party," Vijayvargiya says at events, and adds that it won't be fun if he wins by a mere 500-1,000 votes."I am a horse that runs the more you feed it," he says, adding that he enjoys the faith of both the party workers and public.

Around 3 km away, at Shakti Nagar temple, Shukla's Jan Sabha is a much quieter affair. Sitting on the ground, Shukla is having puris. This down-to-earth demeanour and personal connect with voters are Shukla's USP. Before Vijayvargiya was given the ticket, he had touched the elder BJP leader's feet when sharing the stage with him. "There is no challenge,"

Shukla insists. "I am the son of Indore. I've served for five years... Beta hi jitega, neta nahin (The son will win, not the politician)."

The Congress van in the area blares the Bollywood hit 'Tum toh thehre pardesi, saath kya nibhaoge (You are a stranger, how long will you be around)'. Shukla is hoping the focus on hyperlocal issues clicks, and recently sought a halt to Indore's nightlife. "After 12, nothing should be open," he says.

In the Banganga area, most residents have their own Sanjay Shukla story. Shyam Solanki, 70, a tailor, admires "Shuklaji" for how approachable he is. "He passes by my shop and greets me every morning." But, he adds: "We are Sanghi... My vote will always be for the BJP."

Cong names 19 more for Rajasthan; win some, lose some for Gehlot

HAMZA KHAN Jaipur, October 27

THE CONGRESS ON Thursday declared its third list of candidates for Rajasthan, announcing 19 names, including that of a sitting minister, and some Independent and former BSP MLAs who have helped the Ashok Gehlot government through several crises.

Of the 19, Congress or its allies have sitting MLAs on 14. There are BJP MLAs in the remaining five seats.

Incidentally, three Gehlot loyalists and heavyweights who are considered the architects of the 2022 defiance by the CM of a high command directive do not figure in the party's third list either. The three include minis-
